

Friends & Feelings.

Understanding the link between personal identity and wellbeing. As well as developing strategies to deal with difficult situations

We can:

- Identify our own personal strengths and recognise ways to use them
- Identify ways to recognise how other people are feeling
- Discuss ways to solve problems with friends and deal with difficult situations
- Make a commitment to a positive behaviour change